

Stakeholder of DUS

Key Stakeholders:

The Target People seeking development support:

- Ultra poor Islanders women stays below poverty line being victimized by regular hazards like Tropical Cyclone, salinity, surge and river bank slides.
- The Landless poor generated by Continuous River Bank erosion & others natural hazards.
- Fisher-folks who are losing their inherited livelihood due to decline of fish catch and unwanted infiltration of money lenders to fishing sectors and being ultra poor in terms of daily income (below BDT. 30) and intake.
- Women and Children dwell at grassroots community (Char; riverbed) where GOB services are at zero level.
- Widows those who have been lost their spouse in recent disaster and now heading the family for minimum subsistence or intake.
- Children those who have lost their parents in disaster and now struggling to survive together with family members like elderly, newborn and others dependant.
- Pregnant mothers, newborn and under 05 infants having no access to essential health service including ANC, PNC, NNC etc.

The civil society; allied to target people:

- CPP volunteers having life skill including attitude of volunteer services.
- Local elected bodies and local govt. representative.
- Community based local elites and leaders.
- Religious leaders; the Imam or religious Messengers.
- School and College Teachers.
- Local media people including local folk-song team.
- Local leaders of bazaar, club and others trade/commercial/charitable entity.

Cooperating Stakeholders:

The Institutions; Key entities for local resource management:

- Upazila and union base GOB line agencies.
- School and others educational body works at union and upazila level.
- Upazila & Union disaster management committees.(UDMCs).
- Cyclone preparedness Union & ward committees.
- Cyclone preparedness program (CPP).
- NGOs works in and around the intervention area.
- School Management Committees (SMC).
- Parents and Teachers Association (PTA).
- Project based organization (PBOs).
- Community based organization (CBOs).
- Mosque and bazaar management committee.
- Union and ward base development committees.
- Water management committees.

The Networks for work together and raising voices for marginalized:

National:

01. Bangladesh Disaster Preparedness centre (BDPC)
02. Network for Information Response and preparedness Activities on Disaster (NIRAPAD)
03. Association for Land Reform & Dev. (ALRD)
04. Bangladesh NGO'S Network for Radio and Communication (BNNRC)
05. Costal Fisher folk Community Network (COFCON)

- 06. HIV /AIDS and Social Action Bangladesh (HASAB)
- 07. Campaign For Popular Education(CAMPE)
- 08. Disaster Forum
- 09. Association For Disaster Mitigation and Development(ADMD)

International:

- 01. Asian Disaster Reduction and response Networks (ADRRN), Malaysia.
- 02. Asian Disaster Preparedness Center (ADPC), Thailand.
- 03. Asian Disaster Reduction Center (ADRC), Japan.
- 04. Environment Coping Forum (ECF), Kyoto University, Japan.
- 05. Global Knowledge Partnership (GKP)

The Development partners; who support us:

National:

- 01. Disaster Management Bureau.
- 02. PKSF (Palli Karma-Shahayak Foundation)
- 03. Department of Agriculture Extension of Bangladesh.
- 04. Department of Health and Family Planning.
- 05. Department of Public Health Engineering.
- 06. Ministry of environment and forest.
- 07. Bangladesh Bank; Housing Fund.
- 08. Ministry of land.
- 09. Ministry of Livestock.
- 10. Bangladesh NGOs Foundation (BNF)
- 11. BRAC

International:

- 01. Oxfam –GB.
- 02. UNDP (United Nations Development Program)
- 03. WFP (World Food Program)
- 04. UNICEF
- 05. DFID
- 06. European Union.
- 07. Netherlands Embassy; Char Development & Settlement Project.
- 08. World Bank
- 09. UN-ISDR
- 10. DANIDA
- 11. Save the Children
- 12. CARE – Bangladesh.
- 13. One world South Asia.
- 14. SEEDS – India.
- 15. RedR India.

